FISH FRY & CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

June 13, 2015 4 p.m.

Margaret Harsch's Home
513 Heard Street.

Bring your family and friends for a fun social. Swimming pool, horseshoe pit, pool, bean bag toss, fried fish, pot luck brought by our members. We are going to combine this with the Kiwanis 100th anniversary celebration. Kiwanis International has sent us a fun-filled package of goodies to be opened at the fish fry. It promises to be a day of fun and surprises. If you are coming, please email Shannon at sspattersontx@gmail.com, Dub at dub.liz@sbcglobal.net a quarter of billion women in childbearing age has been validated for MNT elimination. As you know, India has been self-financing MNTE activities for more than five years, with UNICEF providing technical assistance. The list of validated countries is now to 37, we still have 22 countries that need our dedicated focus and resolve to eliminate MNT. Congratulations to all of you for your continued dedication to The Eliminate Project and making this wonderful news possible!
