- 3 - To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- 4 - To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- 5 - To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- 6 - To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.
