ON THE LIGHTER SIDE
FATHERS DAY JUNE 19TH

The right choice! A 16-year-old boy was out late with friends when he suddenly realized it was Father's Day and he had not bought a card for his dad. After much searching, he located an open store, but they only two cards left. Selecting one, he brought it home and, somewhat sheepishly, gave it to his Dad. Upon opening it, Dad read this message: "You've been like a father to me." He looked puzzled. "Well, Dad," he tried to explain, "it was either that or the card that said, 'Now that I'm a father too!'"

Thanks for the Soda, Pop! Before I took the old family car to college, my father loaded the trunk with soft-drink bottles filled with oil, coolant and transmission fluid. Sure enough, my car overheated. Scolding myself for not listening to my father's instructions, I looked at the engine and saw how well he knew me. The oil cap was labeled Dr. Pepper, the transmission stick, Coke, and the empty coolant container, Diet Pepsi.
