Vacation Bible School – DATE HAS CHANGED!

4TH OF JULY PARADE – DOWNTOWN MCKINNEY

One of the best things about McKinney is our Home town feel. You can get that feeling this Independence Day. Our club will participate in this fun event. Margaret Harsch & Durinda Fisher will head up the project. They will have the truck, flat bed and music. Keep that day open, bring your whole family and all your friends. Wear your patriotic clothes. If you have not done this before here is the skinny: We get downtown around 9:30 on the 4th, decorate the float then we either ride on the float or walk beside it in the parade. Two members walk out front with our banner. There is always a big turnout of citizens lining the route. Mark your calendars!! Contact Margaret Harsh or Durinda Fisher with any questions.

6th Annual SERVE McKinney Open House Thursday Night at the Collin County Higher Education Center

This was a good chance to have people see what our club does and pick up information. Thanks to Dub for making up invitations. Thanks for Sandra and Dennis for setting up the table and thanks to Bill Rosnett for talking to potential members.
